THE HONEYMOON

Bucuti Beach Resort & Tara Suites

Aruba's famed boutique resort added the Tara Beach wing last year, and recently did a complete makeover and refurbishing of the Bucuti wing. A contemporary West Indies look is freshly inviting in all rooms and suites, with large patios or balconies overlooking pristine Eagle Beach. Pictured here is a suite from the new Tara wing and a renovated superior room from the Bucuti wing.

Honeymooners can take it to the top, literally, in one of four penthouse suites. The bedroom has a gorgeous four-poster bed, a modern claw-foot bathtub sits next to a full shower in the bathroom, and there is also a living room, dining room, and kitchen. The terrace calls your name, boasting a comfy day bed and lounge furnishings to enjoy the cool Caribbean breezes.
