Why Bucuti & Tara Beach Resort is the Best Honeymoon Spot in Aruba for Couples

in Travel Blog

by Kach Medina

When your flight got delayed or canceled, chances are you would get furious and will just pray that you can hop onto the next earliest possible flight. But in our case in Aruba, I thanked the Universe for the flight cancellation because it opened doors for me to see this wonderful island.

Aruba is a Dutch Caribbean island off the coast of Venezuela. It is located on the continent of South America, and a lot of tourists spend their holidays here because of its sunny weather and amazing beaches. To tell you frankly, it isn't cheap to travel in Aruba – or in the Caribbean for that matter. So when we got the chance to stay in what they call the Most Romantic Resort in the World – Bucuti & Tara Beach Resort, I was ecstatic – no less!

They were not kidding when they gave that property its title of being romantic. Just so you know, Bucuti & Tara Beach Resort is an adult only beach resort. Thus it is perfect for newly-weds or for couples who would like to relax. I have nothing against kids, and I love them so much; however, the property would like to keep its serenity by having adult only guests. They want us to experience full relaxation at its finest.

And speaking of full relaxation, we were so lucky to have stayed in the property's penthouse! You got it right. We are in this expensive and exclusive resort, staying in one of their premier accommodations – I couldn't ask for more.

Our Personal Experience of Bucuti & Tara Beach Resort, Aruba

Bucuti & Tara Beach Resort, Aruba is located at LG Smith Boulevard # 55B, Palm Eagle Beach, Aruba. It was a 25-minute drive from the airport, and the taxis at the airport are fixed rate and organized!

Where we stayed?

Our Penthouse Suite – When we reached our penthouse, it was such a great challenge on what to do next. Clearly, both the room and the beach are irresistible. But of course, I chose to roam around our room first!

Apart from having a great view, there are some facilities in your penthouse which will make your stay even more comfortable. You have your own living area, dining area, terrace, and even a kitchen. And when you decide to relax at the beach, the Penthouse guests get their own private cabana. Imagine drinking some cocktails or fresh coconut water while in there.
