Body Language of Relaxation

Sacred Massage of Totomo:

THE TOTOMO is a prized possession among the ancestral culture of Aruba and it is used to save water. We make use of the Canica of Totomo with seawater in order to restore one's vital energy. The stress and pent-up tension will disappear the moment your feet are cleansed in water of Totomo, continuing with a swedish massage and a choice of one of the following enhancements: coconut scalp massage, paraffin of the feet, or foot conditioning. Giving you an extraordinary sensation of freshness, while relaxing the tightened muscles and improving circulation.
