

Waves from Bucuti

 Caribbean's most romantic Resort

In this last newsletter of the year, we reflect, look ahead and feel grateful

We hope you enjoy our end-of-the year stories and updates as we look forward to the new year, 2020. On behalf of all of us at the Bucuti & Tara Beach Resort, we wish you and yours a wonderful holiday season!

Romance is in the Winter Air

BRIDES magazine reveals December is by far the most popular time to propose marriage. During the holidays, family and family gatherings are festive occasions to make big announcements such as engagements. Romance is our specialty and as you or your loved ones get engaged, think of Bucuti & Tara for the perfect honeymoon experience.

Learn More

Cheers! Awards and Accolades for Elements Restaurant

Recognized recently by TripAdvisor as one of the Top 10 restaurants for fine dining in the Caribbean, Wine Spectator with their Award of Excellence and USA Today as one of the 10 best restaurants, our Elements restaurant has earned its popularity as one of the best places to dine on Aruba.

Learn More

A Stylish Refresh and Renovation for the Bucuti Wing

Following the upgrade of mattresses in the Bucuti wing this year to the plush, high-end Tempur-Pedic brand, we continue the upgrade with soothing new fabrics and select furniture to maintain our customary fresh and modern feel.

Learn More

Wellness: Preparing for Your New Year's Resolution

Bucuti & Tara Wellness expert Mignon Aal shares with you her latest insights for a healthy 2020:

Learn More

Bucuti & Tara Proud! Our Most Recent Awards and Accolades

A wonderful surprise came late in October from the prestigious Society of American Travel Writers (SATW) who awarded owner Ewald Biemans with their 2019 Phoenix Award. And then there were more...

Learn More

Celebrating the return of Julie Larson

Many of you will remember Julie Larson who managed our USA based reservations office in the past. With great enthusiasm, we look forward to welcoming Julie back as JL Hospitality, based in the Black Hills of South Dakota, starting December 21st. Julie and her team will be responsible for managing reservations and will be utilizing our existing reservations email addresses and toll free numbers.