

Bucuti News

Greetings from Aruba! We are pleased to share the latest news from Bucuti & Tara Beach Resort, the Caribbean's #1 Hotel for Romance.

As we kick off the New Year, you will be excited to learn of an expansion to our wellness program, a new on-site dining experience, upcoming renovations and much more.

On behalf of all Bucuti associates, thank you for your support and look forward to welcoming you to Aruba on your next Caribbean vacation.

With peace, love and happiness ... naturally,

Ewald Biemans
Owner and CEO

Recent Honorings

Providing a top Caribbean vacation experience is one of our main goals, and we are honored to be recognized for meeting it by top industry publications.

In its 30th annual Readers' Choice Awards, Condé Nast Traveler recognized Bucuti as one of the Top 40 Resorts in the Caribbean.

Additionally, Caribbean Journal named Ewald

Biemans the 2017 Caribbean Hotelier of the Year for showing that a commitment to our community, guests, and environment can be mutually inclusive.

SENSES Replaces Carte

Blanche

After five successful years at our resort, we say goodbye to our friends Dennis and Glenn from Carte Blanche who moved to their own headquarters. In its place, Executive Chef Kelt Hugo Maat and Maitre D' Bas Kruisselbrink have joined forces to create SENSES, an innovative fine dining experience at Bucuti.

True to the restaurant's name, guests are treated to a gastronomic journey that delights the senses in five to eight courses through sight, smell, touch, audio and, of course, taste.

Make your reservation today for a sensory experience not-to-be-missed!

Honored by Aruba Tourism

Part of what makes Aruba "One Happy Island" is the loyal visitors who return time after time. The Aruba Tourism Authority recently honored some of Bucuti's "Distinguished Guests" who have made Aruba their destination of choice for 10 or more consecutive years and a special 25-year "Goodwill Ambassador!"

We are proud to be their home away from home in Aruba and look forward to serving them for many years to come.
