

International Housekeeping Week Celebrations; Bucuti & Tara Beach Resort Celebrates Housekeeping Team

Bucuti & Tara management and staff look forward to International Housekeeping Week in September, each year. It is a highlight for the hard-working Housekeeping team where they are fully celebrated by staff and guests alike.

"When September approaches, you feel the team getting anxious for this year's celebrations", says Executive Housekeeper Mickael Mesker. "The entire team looks forward to the program and I dedicate time developing something special for them every year", says Mesker, "We combine fun activities with team building and good food."

The celebrations kicked off with fantastic breakfast in a fully decorated, stylish new cafeteria. The walls were decorated with hand-made picture frames of the entire Housekeeping team and the cafeteria was dressed up like a formal dining room, including festive confetti and a Grande breakfast buffet. Festivities continued with a private movie showing on the beach of "Absolutely Fabulous" with favorite housekeeping hors d'oeuvres, followed the next days by paintball and a visit to Philips Animal Garden. The team was treated to a delicious dinner at Opus restaurant to finish off the week of celebrations.

"The housekeeping associates include our dream-team of long time employees with service records of over 32 years each. It is a pleasure to honor my hard working and loyal team to a week that celebrates them and thanks them for their exceptional service", says Ewald Biemans – Owner & CEO of Bucuti & Tara Beach Resort.

The housekeeping team at Bucuti & Tara Beach Resort has won multiple awards, including the only Aruba Resort to win the 2019 AAA Inspector's Best Of Housekeeping award for exceptional cleanliness. Our housekeepers are regularly praised by guests for their high level of service.

Bucuti & Tara Beach Resorts is an adult-only 104 room, boutique hotel on Eagle beach. The Housekeeping team provides daily service to the guest rooms, as well as turndown service. The team also manages all public areas and the resorts laundry facility.
