Delta Vacations is giving away as many as 12 free trips to coveted destinations around the globe as part of its "Firsts That Last" contest this holiday season.

Prize vacations include a first-time overwater bungalow experience in Bora Bora, a volcano tour in Guanacaste, Costa Rica, a Greek Islands cruise from Athens, a peek into the Mayan Ruins in Riviera Maya, Mexico, a glowing midnight swim in Montego Bay, Jamaica and a theme park thrill in Orlando, Florida, among several others.

Beginning Thursday, November 10, participants can enter for free by visiting DeltaVacationsFirstsThatLastContest.com and choosing a destination to answer questions as to why they should win this "first" experience. The contest will end just before midnight on November 19.

The aforementioned prize vacations range in value from $4,000 to $22,000 and all trips include the full Delta Vacations experience such as airfare, accommodations for two to four people and activities.

"We want customers to experience Delta Vacations in an unforgettable way—especially if it's their first time traveling with us," Brian Canning, Chief Marketing, Product and Customer Experience Officer for Delta Vacations, said in a statement. "Going on vacation is more than just getting away, it's personal. Delta Vacations curates vacations to fit every traveler's needs, vacation style and preference. We want travelers to experience the ease of planning a memorable vacation."
